

Computer Aided (CAD/CAM) Design Award

WINNER: Liana Coetsee
Nina's Jewellery

This bracelet's pieces represent the earth, past, present and future, showing the effects of global warming. Diamonds bring us joy while capturing carbon for eternity. The neoprene running through the centre represents the products we use and the challenges we face to overcome this environmental crisis. RRP: $52,000.

Opal Design Award

WINNER: Genevieve Lilley
Venerari

This pendant highlights the wonderful idiosyncratic beauty of opals by juxtaposing them with the brilliance of coloured gems to stunning effect. It is made from 18-carat white gold, natural solid Queensland boulder opals, emerald cut zircon, cabochon green baguette tourmaline and oval tsavorite. RRP: $13,500.

Gold Design Award

WINNER: Monika Droste
Venerari

Named Ying and Yang, this stunning bangle symbolises the wave of life. Made in 18-carat yellow gold and blue ceramic, the matt-finished piece expresses pure beauty as well as life's ups and downs, while the smooth enamelled ends burst with the colours of the ocean. RRP: $10,000.